

Uncle Pen Polka

Partner formation dance

This is a fun polka routine where dancers start in lines facing each other and end up doing the steps in a circular formation. No alternative tracks are suggested because the routine is choreographed to match the Ricky Skaggs version exactly.

Wait 35 counts before starting (8 polka basics + 1,2,3)

Start in lines in closed position with your partner. Leaders should be facing LOD (across to the opposite line) and followers should be facing RLOD (have their backs to the opposite line). Couples should be offset (leaders facing a gap in the opposite line) so that the lines can cross freely without collision.
